

Possessing the Land Session 14: Manoah and Samson

February 23rd –Judges 13-16, Psalm 108:5-13, 1 Samuel 8:19-20 c. 1113-1053 BC

We like a strong man who will do everything for us so we don't have to lift a finger. Such a man was Samson, whom God set apart for Himself from conception. No one knew God's plans for him, least of all himself. Did Samson's example lead the Israelites to ask for a king to go out before them and fight their battles?

As a Nazarite, he had no issue with substance abuse and he had confidence in God, but he had major failings – women, temper, and pride. God used Samson's weakness. Could he have been more useful as a wise, godly man?
