

1 John Session 3: Fellowship with God

March 16th – See, Hear, and Walk: 1 John 1:1-7 and 2 Cor 6:11-18

In the first verses of 1 John, he establishes the basis for our fellowship with God and with each other – seeing Jesus Christ for who he is and living in His Light. This connection is protection against deceivers and leads us to assurance of our standing in Christ.

In 2 Corinthians 6, Paul uses similar comparison of light and darkness to encourage the Corinthians to stay aligned with God and with the true fellowship of believers, warning them against joining with deceivers.

Sadly, both John and Paul needed to defend their relationship to those they nurtured in Christ to gain acceptance of their message against deceivers.
