

1 Corinthians Session 12: Contentious Issues

August 17th – 1 Corinthians 11, 1 Timothy 3:1-5, Philippians 2:3-4

Modern Christians often try to ignore the first part of chapter 11 by saying this is Paul's preference in a different cultural climate. That is too easy a cop-out; we can see that the source of this concern still exists.

Also, the Corinthian Christians were distorting the uniting purpose of the Lord's Supper through their callous unconcern for the brethren. The application goes beyond the Lord's Supper.

Prayer requests:

1. Health: All summer long, the staff and even some of the guests have been hit hard with Covid or Covid like illness and have been short staffed every week.
2. Endurance: the camp is losing workers/volunteers as they leave to go back to school. Help those of us who are staying to finish physically, emotionally, and spiritually strong.
3. Salvation/Spiritual rejuvenation: that anyone who is here at camp will give their lives over to and trust in Christ or come away from this experience walking closer with Him.
